

BIG BROWN BAT
Eptesicus fuscus

Habitat

They sleep in trees and cliffs during the day.
They hibernate in caves during winter.

Food

Mosquitoes, moths, bees, cockroaches, and beetles.

Predators

Barn owls, large snakes, and horned owls.

Reproduction

Like all mammals, they give birth to live young.

Where are they today?

There are small populations living under bridges around Manhattan.