

BLUE CRAB
Callinectes sapidus

Habitat

These crabs live in the mud and sand of bays and estuaries.

Food

Plankton, small fish, other crabs

Predators

Birds, fish, beavers, otters, seals

Reproduction

Their eggs are carried by ocean water currents.

Where are they today?

There is a population in the mouth of the Hudson River.