

SNOWY EGRET
Egretta thula

Habitat

They inhabit fresh and saltwater marshes, rocky beaches, and shores of lakes, rivers, and bays.

Food

Fish, crustaceans, and insects

Predators

Raccoons, red foxes, and gulls eat their eggs.

Reproduction

They build grass nests in trees or shrubs near water.

Where are they today?

They are not common in Manhattan.