

BLACK-CAPPED CHICKADEE

Parus atricapillus

Habitat

These little birds live in forests.

Food

Spiders, mosquitoes, millipedes, seeds, and berries

Predators

Owls, hawks, chipmunks, and snakes

Reproduction

They nest inside holes and crevices of trees.

Where are they today?

They are commonly observed in the trees of city parks.